OLD AGE STARTS WITH YOUR KIDNEYS

Science says that old age begins with weakened kidneys and digestive organs.
This being true, it is easy to believe that by keeping the kidneys and digestive organs cleansed and in proper working order old age can be deferred and life prolonged far beyond that enjoyed by the average person.
For over 200 years Gold Medal Haarem Oil has been relieving the weakness and disability due to advancing years. It is a standard old-time home remedy and needs no introduction. GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil is included in odorless, tasteless capsules containing about five drops each. Take them as you would a pill, with a small swallow of water. The oil stimulates the kidney action and enables the organs to throw off the poisons which cause premature old age. New life and strength increase as you continue the treatment. When completely rejuvinated taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules will keep you in health and vigor and prevent a return of the disease.

Do not wait until old age or disease have settled down for good. Go to your druggist and get a box of GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules. Money refunded if they do not help you. Three sizes. But remember to ask for the original imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages.—(Adv.)

OBITUARY

AUGUSTINE LITTLETON DEAD AT CAMP TAYLOR

Well-Known Attorney Victim of Pneumonia at Camp Taylor, Louisville.

Augustine Littleton, aged 32, well-known attorney and one of Chattanooga's most highly esteemed young men, is dead at Camp Taylor, Ky. He passed away at 2 o'clock Thursday morning following a brief illness of pneumonia. A telegram received here a short time later, contained the sad intelligence. His wife, mother and other relatives departed for Louisville Tuesday night. The body will be brought to Chattanooga, and funeral arrangements are to be made later.

Attorney Littleton, brother of the deceased, is seriously ill with influenza, but is better today. Only a few weeks ago Augustine Littleton, a splendid specimen of physical manhood, departed for Camp Taylor to enter the officers' training camp. Just as he was beginning the course that, when finished, no doubt would have been rewarded with the receipt of an officer's commission, the disease which has been claiming so many victims in army camps and elsewhere laid its hold upon him. In spite of his brave fight, he failed to shake off the tenacious grip of the malady. The end came early today.

The deceased was a member of one of Tennessee's prominent and widely known families. Surviving him are his wife, who before her marriage was Miss Margarette Warner; a baby daughter, little Miss Gray Warner Littleton; his mother, Mrs. Mary Brabson Littleton, of Chattanooga, and a brother, Attorney Carlyle Littleton, prominent practicing attorney of this city.

He was one of the oldest members of Centenary M. E. church, south.

He is survived by three daughters, two sons, Mrs. C. H. Holland, of Memphis; Mrs. E. F. Bailey, of Seattle, Wash.; W. and J. W. Lee, who reside in the west. Dr. E. E. Wiley, pastor of Centenary church, will conduct the funeral service at the residence, 510 West Main street.

Interment will be announced later. The following will act as pallbearers: W. E. Spencer, C. T. Marehouse, Knox Garmany, Will Miller, George Brown, Harry Street, Morgan Douglas, C. T. Key.

Thomas Cooke McDermott, of Beaufort, Ala., a first cousin of W. B. Swaney, Mrs. Nellie Patty, T. H. Cooke and R. B. Cooke, of this city, is a victim of Spanish influenza. The deceased was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McDermott, former residents of Chattanooga. Surviving him are his wife, a small daughter, Jane McDermott, his parents and two brothers, John and Gus McDermott.

The deceased's wife, before her marriage, was Miss Mary Wilson, of Niotia.

Funeral of Mrs. Fyffe.
Mrs. Nellie Frost Fyffe, beloved Chattanooga woman, wife of Maj. J. F. Fyffe, who died early Wednesday morning of pneumonia, was laid to rest in the National cemetery following services at the grave at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Wyllie Kinsolving, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of which deceased was a member, officiated. Numerous beautiful floral offerings attested to the love and esteem of sorrowing friends. Pallbearers were T. C. Thompson, George J. Haley, M. B. Ochs, Walter C. Johnson, C. S. Edwards and V. L. Robinson.

Funeral services over the body of Miss Mary D. Lindemann, aged 25, who died Wednesday morning at her home, 3093 Avenue O, East Lake, of pneumonia, will be held at the grave in Forest Hills cemetery Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Surviving Mrs. Lindemann are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Lindemann; two brothers, Henry, of East Lake, and Edward, of the United States navy; and a sister, Miss Laura.

The deceased had for several years been in the employ of the Chattanooga Medicine company. She was from one of the most prominent families of East Lake. Her brother, Edward, who is in New York, has received leave of absence to attend the funeral.

C. C. DeBardelaben.

Influenza, which developed into pneumonia, resulted in the death of C. C. DeBardelaben, well-known citizen and business man, at local hospital Thursday morning at 2:30. He had been sick only a few days. The body was removed to Greenwood cemetery and was buried there.

The body will be sent to Watauga, Ala., home of the deceased, for burial. Mr. DeBardelaben's father, T. DeBardelaben, and sister, Mrs. O. P. Reese, came here following the receipt of news of the serious illness of the son and brother. In addition to the DeBardelabens, he is survived by several brothers and sisters.

The deceased had been a resident of Chattanooga for a number of years. He was a member of the firm of Pickett & DeBardelaben, on East Eighth street. He was a member of the Elks.

NEW BREAKS TAKE PLACE IN CORN MARKET

Chicago, Oct. 10.—New breaks took place in the corn market today, influenced exclusively by developments in the military and diplomatic situation. Opening prices, which ranged from 13 1/2c to 14 1/2c, were followed by declines in some cases to under the initial bottom figures.

Oats dropped sharply with corn. After opening 1 1/2c off to 1 1/4c, with November 1 1/4c and December 1 1/2c, the market recovered slightly and closed steady.

Provisions fell the maximum limit allowed for a single day. Offerings were not large, but there was no demand.

The close was unsettled, 5 1/2c net lower to 1 1/2c advance, with November 1 1/2c and December 1 1/2c.
